

ODD HOURS, NO PAY, COOL HAT COMMUNITY SCREENING GUIDE

Odd Hours, No Pay, Cool Hat follows the inspiring journey of the most remarkable neighbors whose help you hope you never need - volunteer firefighters - as they encounter heart-breaking challenges and exhilarating triumphs to fulfill a single mission: serving their community. Heart-warming, humorous, and thrilling, this sweeping portrait of bravery will capture your heart and inspire.

USE THIS AS A RECRUITMENT OPPORTUNITY!

Turn this Free Movie Screening into a volunteer recruitment event to grow your team. You can join leaders and communities across the country to experience the documentary before its summer 2023 release, and engage with potential new recruits.

We'll help set everything up, and provide guidance on organizing and running a successful event.

You'll get free access to the film! There may be a cost to rent a venue in your community.

CHOOSE A DATE

Decide when you want to host this screening with your community. Screenings can take place throughout the spring and early summer.

CHOOSE A VENUE

If you're with a fire department, consider hosting this at your station! This is an excellent way to recruit more volunteers. A host can also choose any venue in your community such as a library, community center, movie theater, office meeting room, etc.

PLAN A Q&A

We'll provide you with a free Discussion Guide to facilitate a rich conversation after the movie. You can even request the filmmakers or the featured firefighters join your discussion!

GET THE WORD OUT

You can use social media and mailing lists to let your audience know about the event. You'll receive a free Social Media Toolkit!
