AES Safer Tomorrow Fund

$200,000 in Grants

10 eligible volunteer fire, EMS, and rescue departments will receive up to $20,000.

WHAT CAN FUNDING SUPPORT?

- Equipment & PPE
- Training & Education
- Emergency Preparedness
- Recruitment & Retention
- Other Critical Needs

WHO CAN APPLY?

Must be a fire, EMS, or rescue department that meets these criteria:

- Be at least 50% volunteer
- Have 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status
- Serve one of the eligible geographic locations

Priority given to departments with at least one active NVFC member.

Eligible geographic locations

Volunteer fire, EMS, and rescue services must be working in or serving communities in the following counties and states that host AES energy projects:

- Arizona: Maricopa, Coconino, Pima, Pinal
- California: Los Angeles, San Diego, Riverside, Kern, San Bernardino
- Colorado: Prowers
- Georgia: Taliaferro, Greene, Hancock
- Indiana: Clinton, Dubois
- Louisiana: Morehouse Parish
- North Carolina: Robeson, Washington
- Pennsylvania: Beaver
- South Carolina: Marlboro
- Utah: Juab, Kane, San Juan
- Virginia: Surry, Isle of Wight, Lunenburg, Pulaski, Charles City

HOW TO APPLY

To learn more and apply, use the QR code or visit:

www.nvfc.org/aes

Submit your application by Friday, January 15, 2027, at noon ET.

All applicants will be notified of funding decisions by April 30, 2027.

Questions? Contact Lori Shirley, senior program manager, at lori@nvfc.org or 202-887-5700 ext. 125.

NVFC NATIONAL VOLUNTEER FIRE COUNCIL FIRE • EMS • RESCUE www.nvfc.org | aes